

Reference: MAC Handbook

MAC United is committed to using reasonable efforts to ensure it provides accessible services to people with different backgrounds and individuals with various kinds of disabilities and respects the core principles of independence, dignity, integration and equal opportunity, and will comply with all applicable accessibility laws in each province and territory. MAC United is committed that athletes/players are able to participate in sports for an enjoyable and fun environment.