

Parents are expected to follow the Parent Code of Conduct to foster a healthy environment for players, parents and coaches & CMSA officials . Parents are expected to read the Player Code of Conduct with their player(s). Parents are expected to encourage and guide their players to abide by the Player Code of Conduct to ensure that all players have a fun and enjoyable experience on the field.

Reference: Calgary Minor Soccer Association (CMSA)

1. Model good sporting behavior for your child in all interactions with their teammates, opponents and referees.
2. Refrain from any criticism of referees; they, like your children, are learning the game and need support and encouragement from all.
3. Provide positive feedback to all players from both teams and offer engagement when they try something creative or demonstrate good skills.
4. Refrain from any type of discrimination and treat all participants with respect and dignity and appreciate that every individual is unique
5. Avoid conflicts with parents from your team and the opposing team.
6. Let the coach do their job; avoid yelling instructions to players from the sidelines, as it can be confusing and frustrating for all
7. Communicate openly with your coach if you have ideas or concerns; choose a time away from a game situation; treat the coach with respect and work with them for the betterment of the team
8. Reading the Player Code of Conduct with their player(s) and helping them abide by the player conduct